INTRODUCTION

The Rules of Operation for the Texas Section of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE), hereafter referred to as “Texas Section”, include the Constitution, Bylaws, and Leadership Handbook. The Constitution and Bylaws of the Texas Section govern the general management of the organization. The Leadership Handbook of the Texas Section provide guidance for the implementation of provisions in the Constitution and Bylaws including the recommended assignment of responsibilities and schedules by persons elected and appointed to positions of service. This guidance informs leaders of the unique aspects associated with governing a membership organization.

The Board of Direction (Board) has fiduciary responsibility and shall determine the Texas Section’s strategic direction. The Texas Section’s Strategic Plan is a separate document that provides a roadmap for leadership and staff. The plan is updated every five (5) years or less and defines the vision, mission, values, and goals of the Texas Section.

The President is responsible for leading the Board as it carries out governance functions and the development of policy and procedure. The President is responsible for setting specific goals and providing advice for attaining the organization's strategic initiatives and strategic goals.

The Executive Director is the general manager and chief executive officer and has, subject to the control of the Board, general supervision, direction and control of the business activities of the Texas Section. The Executive Director is responsible for ensuring the Texas Section’s activities are compliant and in furtherance of its mission.

All Board members and Committees should recognize that the President cannot carry out programs and projects; the President can only provide direction and encouragement. It is the responsibility of Committee members to carry out the programs and projects under the oversight of Officers and with the support of staff.

This document contains duties and responsibilities of Board members, Standing and Task Committees, and Institutes Chapters; and documents approved procedures and policies. This edition of the Rules of Operation has been organized to show each Committee under the general heading of the Board member who is charged with oversight of each respective committee.

The Rules of Operation is subject to continuing review and revision. It is considered part of the duty of each person serving the Texas Section to help define the task or office assigned and to communicate to the Board desirable changes within the guidelines of the Constitution and Bylaws. The Rules of Operation should be endorsed by the Executive Committee for approval and adoption by the Board.

In order to maintain contact with Branches, the Section President shall request each Branch to name a Branch representative as a contact member on this committee. The Section Director from the Branch will serve if another member is not designated.

4.A.1 TEXAS HISTORIC CIVIL ENGINEERING LANDMARK NOMINATIONS

The preservation of the knowledge and the recognition of civil engineers is important. Informing the public of Civil Engineering Landmark projects and reminding them of the role in their lives that civil engineers play is equally important and mutually beneficial

For Society-level designation, the project must be at least 50 years old from the time of completion, and the design or construction must have expanded the limits of the profession. For a project that may not qualify on the Society-level scale but is deemed significant for the region or local area as a noteworthy project, a Texas Section may designate it to be a Texas Historic Civil Engineering Landmark. .

Procedure for the nomination of a project for designation as a Texas Historic Civil Engineering Landmark: This process needs to start about two years before the scheduled meeting or desired ceremony time. Although the project may not qualify for Society-level status, the same format and procedures as a nomination for Society-level designation will be followed.

1. Contact the Texas Section Chair of the History and Heritage Committee with a proposal and seek the latest format or information on nominations. Cost sharing will be required with the local Branch, the project owners, and the Texas Section.
2. Begin gathering data, pictures, articles, and ways to prove that the project deserves to be designated, i.e., largest, not previously designed, new method of construction, new use of material, or otherwise important to the evolution of Civil Engineering technology.
3. Draft nomination and get others to review and suggest improvements or additional material. The Texas Section Chair and several experienced members of the History and Heritage Committee should be contacted for review and comments.
4. No nomination should be attempted without the project owner's approval and cooperation. When the nomination is nearing completion, a formal statement of the owner's endorsing the nomination and placing of a plaque on the project should be obtained. Whenever possible, the plaque should be placed in a highly visible public area.
5. At approximately eight months to one year before the ceremony date, a completed draft copy of the final nomination must be presented to the Texas Section Chair of the History and Heritage Committee for review by the Committee and presentation to the Texas Section Board for approval. In order to allow sufficient time to have the plaque cast and to prepare properly for a public dedication ceremony, the nomination must receive approval at a regularly scheduled Board Meeting held at least six (6) months prior to the ceremony.
6. After approval is obtained, the final copies of the nomination will be prepared, signed, and provided to the Texas Section Office, the Texas Section Chair of the History and Heritage Committee, and the ASCE

HHC. Also, to be sent to the Texas Section Office is a layout of the 14-inch by 20-inch plaque. A draft of the plaque will be returned for approval before the actual plaque is cast.

7. Hold the dedication ceremony at a suitable time and place for maximum public participation and press coverage. Local historical societies and other public officials should be invited to participate in and/or co-sponsor the ceremony.

4.A.2 ASCE HISTORIC CIVIL ENGINEERING LANDMARK NOMINATIONS

If ASCE Historic Civil Engineering Landmark designation is desired, the procedures may require additional time, as HHC generally meets twice a year. When a nomination is received, one of the HHC committee members is appointed to be the project nomination presenter and to do extra research and preparation for the committee meeting. It is desirable that the presenter (from the same ASCE Region as the project) also be an advocate. If the presenter can be appointed approximately 3 months prior to a meeting, then sufficient time to prepare may be available, and HHC committee action might be taken at the first board meeting after the nomination is received.

When the designation is approved, the ordering of the plaque and preparation for the ceremony can be accomplished. A minimum of three to four months should be allowed for this phase of the procedure. A draft layout of the plaque should be submitted along with the nomination.

Hold the dedication ceremony at a suitable time and place for maximum public participation and press coverage. Representatives from the Texas Section, Society-level ASCE, HHC, and local historical societies and other public officials should be invited to participate in and/or co-sponsor the ceremony.

15.0 POLICIES & SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION

The following policies are provided as guidance for Texas Section volunteers and staff.

15.A POLICY STATEMENT ON THE USE OF THE TEXAS SECTION-ASCE MEMBERSHIP DATA

The Texas Section maintains a current roster of the names and addresses of its assigned and subscribing members. This roster is based on information and revisions processed by ASCE in Reston, Virginia. Use of the membership roster will be controlled as established in ASCE's Rules for Region, Section & Branch Membership Records Use and outlined below:

1. ASCE membership data is the sole property of ASCE. ASCE at all times retains exclusive ownership rights of all data. Membership data must be held secure and in strict confidence, without disclosure to third parties. It is to be used only for official ASCE Region, Section and/or Branch business.
2. This data should never be duplicated/transferred/copied/scanned/keyed/reused/provided/sold to nonmembers or distributed for any purpose other than official ASCE business.
3. ASCE will provide specific membership data to the Regions, Sections and Branches to conduct the typical business of the Region, Section or Branch. ASCE reserves the right to reject any inappropriate mailing program(s), and ASCE's approval of a specific mailing program does not guarantee approval of future requests. Questions regarding appropriate mailings or use of lists should be directed to the Geographic Services Department.

15.B PROTOCOL FOR INVITING SOCIETY OFFICERS TO TEXAS SECTION MEETINGS

It is the duty of the Society's President-Elect to attend Section and Branch meetings. The Society President attends international meetings and special events.

Society officers typically have many committee and Board meetings in the spring and may not be available to attend Texas Section events during that timeframe. The Texas Section typically invites the Society's President-Elect to the annual meeting, held in conjunction with CECON. The Society's President-Elect may conduct the installation of officers at that meeting and the preference is for them to attend and participate in CECON.

1. As soon as the candidates are announced in the Spring, a written invitation should be sent to the candidate for President-Elect to attend CECON for the upcoming year.
2. Send an invitation in January to the Region 6 Board of Governors inviting them to attend the Student Symposium and CECON, and to send a representative to the Executive Committee meetings during the winter and summer.

15.C SENIOR OFFICER FOR THE PURPOSE OF INSTALLATION OF SECTION/BRANCH OFFICERS

Each fall, the Secretary requests the dates, times, and locations for Branch officer installations. When possible, the Texas Section shall provide officers to install incoming Branch leaders. The following is a list of seniority rankings of those eligible to install officers.

1. Current President of ASCE
2. President-elect of ASCE
3. Governor from Region 6 (If more than one Governor is present, the Governor with the most seniority will preside over the installation ceremony)
4. Governor from another Region (Includes Technical)
5. Past President of ASCE
6. Past Vice President of ASCE
7. Past Region 6 Governor
8. Any Past Governor
9. Any Texas Section Past President
10. Texas Section President

15.D PRIVACY POLICY FOR THE USE OF BOARD & COMMITTEE CHAIR CONTACT INFORMATION

The Texas Section will no longer provide the personal or business email addresses of Board members and Committee Chairs on the public Texas Section webpages per the February 25, 2019 Executive Committee Meeting. This decision was made due to an increase of spam emails and email spoofing/phishing incidents Society-wide.

General email addresses for specific volunteer positions, such as “President@TexASCE.org”, or the Texas Section’s office email address (office@TexASCE.org) may be provided on public webpages as a means of contacting leaders. If technology permits, individual email addresses may be hidden and provided only upon member login. Alternatively, the Texas Section may consider providing links to the social media landing pages of Texas Section Board members and Committee Chairs upon their individual approval.

15.D EXPENSE REIMBURSEMENT POLICY

The Texas Section will reimburse Officers, Committee Chairs, and committee members for approved expenses incurred while planning for and/or administering strategic programs and projects. These expenses shall not exceed the total amount listed within the applicable year’s approved budget, specific to each program, project, or committee. Additionally, these expenses shall not include sales tax or alcohol purchases*.

Committee Chairs are responsible for approving expense reimbursement requests for their committee members and volunteers. The Texas Section Officer responsible for overseeing a committee shall approve expense reimbursement requests made by the respective Committee Chair.

Expenses beyond the approved budget will not be approved unless (1) the budget is amended to reflected increased expenses or (2) written approval is provided by the Budget/Finance Committee*.

Approved September 21, 2016:*

(1) The Texas Section will not reimburse for sales tax incurred when a purchase is made on behalf of the Section by an individual, organization, or any other entity. Anyone making a purchase on behalf of the Section should obtain the State of Texas sales tax exemption certificate first from the office.

(2) The Texas Section does not reimburse for alcohol with the exception of that purchased as a gift presentation for a visiting dignitary. Any officer, volunteer member or staff member who is submitting a request for reimbursement of personal expenses must include an itemized receipt, especially reimbursements for meals.

(3) Expenses that are not already in the approved operating budget cannot be incurred nor funds committed without the knowledge and approval of the Budget Finance Committee.

Travel Reimbursement

Texas Section Board members and staff are required to travel for Texas Section meetings. Limited reimbursement for reasonable* travel expenses for Board members may be available from year to year as indicated within the approved budget. If a Board member is concerned about travel expenses, they should contact the President-Elect prior to the start of the fiscal year to discuss concerns. Then, these concerns may be considered during the planning of the upcoming fiscal year's budget.

It is Texas Section policy to reimburse staff for all expenses necessary, reasonable* and actually incurred when traveling on authorized Texas Section business. Travel expenses must be properly documented and approved on a reimbursement request. The Executive Director's reimbursement requests shall be approved by the Treasurer.

The Texas Section will not reimburse volunteers or staff for airline flight upgrades to first class. This includes higher cost reservations to accumulate additional travel plan rewards or other bonuses.*

Amending the Budget

A request to amend the operating budget shall be submitted by the applicable Texas Section Officer to the Budget/Finance Committee for review. The Budget/Finance Committee will subsequently make a recommendation to the Board. The Board will then vote to amend the budget if warranted.

Reimbursement Documentation and Timeline

Approved reimbursement requests shall be provided to the Texas Section office using the appropriate form and shall include itemized receipts. Contact the office to request a reimbursement form.

Requests for reimbursement of expenses shall be submitted to the office within 30 days.

15.E POLICY FOR ENDORSEMENT OF OFFICIAL NOMINEES IN AN ASCE ELECTION

ASCE allows organizational entities such as the Texas Section to endorse Official Nominees for Society-level office. The Texas Section has established a procedure for endorsement of Official Nominees in which Texas Section members are eligible to vote.

Before an endorsement is given, the Texas Section's Executive Committee will convene a teleconference with the Official Nominees at a mutually convenient time. The Section will issue an invitation to each Official Nominee and provide a standardized list of questions to which they will be asked to respond. The Executive Committee will speak with all Official Nominees before voting to endorse one or none of the Official Nominees. Other Texas Section Board members may also be invited to participate in the teleconference.

The Texas Section may publicize the official endorsement of one individual per office per election cycle and may include the rationale used in its endorsement decision. The endorsement rationale, if published, shall not refer to, or compare any other Official Nominees seeking the same office. The endorsement action shall be conveyed to the Official Nominee on Texas Section letterhead, signed by the President, and submitted in advance of the due date established by the Society.

When information on an Official Nominee is publicize then the same information for all Official Nominees seeking the same office shall also be published. Only election materials approved and provided by the Society Secretary may be published (i.e., biographical statement, vision statement, photograph).

Any reference to the Society-level election shall include a link to the Society's official election website.

15.F POLICY ON BOARD MEMBER PARTICIPATION

Approved September 21, 2016. The governing body of the Texas Section is the Board. The Board is responsible for the supervision, control and direction of the Texas Section in accordance with the provisions of the Texas Section's governing documents.

The Board is the highest authority of the Texas Section; it charts the mission and purpose and provides the vision of the organization; it approves the budget and major policies. The Board's focus should be on the bigger picture of strategic planning and financial oversight. The Board also has the highest fiduciary authority and members must review and understand the financials including monthly statements and audits. The Board is responsible for ensuring adequate resources to accomplish the organizational mission and to safeguard the association's legal and ethical integrity.

In order to ensure that the affairs of the Texas Section are managed appropriately, all Board members are expected to attend every Board meeting during their term of office. The officers comprising the Executive Committee are expected to attend every meeting of the Executive Committee during their term of office.

15.G POLICY ON LIFE MEMBER ACCESS TO SECTION PLATFORMS

Approved September 21, 2016.

Members who have attained Life Member status, are assigned to the Texas Section, and have a record in the Texas Section's membership data provided by ASCE headquarters (Life Members) shall be granted access to the Texas Section's website platform whether or not they have paid Texas Section dues or the Texas Section's Life Member Support fee.

Webinars

Life Members, regardless of whether they have paid Texas Section dues or the Texas Section's Life Member Support fee, shall be granted access to the Texas Section's webinars at no cost. Life Members of any dues status must pay the posted fee for recorded webinar content.

Texas Civil Engineer

Only Life Members who have paid the Texas Section's Life Member Support fee and are thereby recognized as Subscribing Members by the Texas Section are eligible to receive the printed format of the Texas Civil Engineer magazine when in production.

When available, anyone desiring a printed copy of the magazine must opt-in by notifying the Texas Section office.

15.H POLICY ON DUES CHANGES

Approved September 21, 2016. The Board will review the dues amount and all sources of revenue and the subsequent impact on the operational budget every fiscal year that starts in an odd-numbered year, for the purpose of determining whether the dues are adequate for funding Texas Section programs for the membership.

In odd-numbered years at the spring Board meeting, a preliminary determination of a dues change should be discussed. If a change is desired, the final meeting of that Board in the fall should provide for endorsement of the proposed change and the initial meeting of the new Board should provide for approval of the change. The rationale for the change should be provided to the membership, and their input solicited, during the subsequent months leading up to the spring meeting of the Board in the even-numbered year at which time the Board must vote on the change in order to meet ASCE's deadline for dues change notification. If the dues change is adopted by the Board at their spring meeting, review the Bylaws to determine if a revision is necessary. Any dues change would then take effect in the next dues year, an odd-numbered year.

The following is excerpted from an article entitled “Election of ASCE National Officers and Directors,” by A.C. Burkhalter, Jr., PE, F.ASCE, a past Branch, Section and Society Officer, which was published in the August/September 1994 issue of the Texas Civil Engineer and has been included in the Texas Section Rules of Operation with Mr. Burkhalter’s concurrence.

LEADERSHIP OPPORTUNITY

We want to make sure that every member who is interested understands the process and has an opportunity to take leadership role...if they want to. We’re all volunteers and nobody can force you to take a “job” in ASCE against your will.

So, what can you do to seek an office in ASCE...whether it’s as Committee Head, Director or Officer at the Branch, Section, or Society level? Let me offer these suggestions:

1. The process starts in the Branch and moves up. Get active at the local level. Attend your Branch meetings whenever possible. Volunteer to help in Branch activities. Get to know other members in the Branch.
2. Volunteer to serve on a Committee (or Committees) including special task groups or projects. Move up to become Chairperson.
3. Contact the current officers and head of the Nominating Committee when candidates are being discussed and selected. Let them know of your interest.
4. Prepare and keep current a one-page resume emphasizing your ASCE activities. List other groups and organizations in which you actively participate and have held leadership positions. Keep copies of a current business photo (portrait) available.
5. Very important — Have the support of your employer, your family and your associates, in whatever role and activity you’re seeking. If this is limited, still volunteer to serve but on a limited basis.
6. Be sincere and honest. Don’t take on an assignment or seek an office if you don’t intend to do the job.
7. When you become a Committee Head, Director, or Officer (at whatever level), perform your duties and fulfill your responsibilities to the best of your ability. The opportunity will probably not repeat itself, so you only have “one shot” to do well.
